MOOT PROPOSITION (SUMMARY)

Writ Petition filed by a Student regarding Social Media Takedown & Police Action

(For ..... Moot Competition, 2025)

BACKGROUND

Aarav Mehta, aged 19, is a first-year student at Western Metropolitan College, Luminora. He manages a popular Instagram page called “Luminora Unfiltered”, known for posting humorous memes on public life, city infrastructure, and government decisions. The page grew rapidly and, by July 2025, had over 42,000 followers, mostly college students.

On 11 July 2025, Aarav posted a meme satirizing the newly announced “City Mobility Optimization Policy” of the Government of Luminora.

The meme became viral within hours, generating thousands of shares and comments. Several users tagged political leaders, journalists, and government handles, calling the policy “impractical”.

The post also triggered heated exchanges on social media. A few politically affiliated student groups complained online that the meme “misrepresented” the policy and was being used to ridicule a senior Minister.

On 12 July 2025, a series of online complaints were submitted through the State Cyber Complaint Portal alleging that the meme was “provocative”, “misleading”, and “capable of disturbing commuter behaviour”.

On the morning of 13 July 2025, officials from Luminora Police's Cyber Cell delivered a notice at Aarav's residence asking him to appear for inquiry. The notice mentioned that an investigation had been initiated based on the online complaints. It also stated that Aarav should bring the device used to post the meme.

Later that afternoon, a message was circulated among student groups claiming that “Aarav is being targeted for political criticism.” This message led to spontaneous gatherings inside Western Metropolitan College. Students held placards reading “Let Memes Live” and “Don't Block Youth Voices”. The gathering lasted about 2 hours and dispersed peacefully after college authorities intervened.

On the same day, local news channels picked up the story and reported that “Luminora Police questions student for meme on Minister”. Several media discussions debated whether memes should attract police action.

GOVERNMENT ACTION

On 13 July 2025, the Assistant Commissioner of Police submitted a brief report to the Home Department, Government of Luminora, stating that the meme had “sparked unrest among student groups” and had “potential to escalate”. The report recommended temporary preventive measures.

That evening, an order was issued directing that circulation of “misleading or provocative online material relating to the Mobility Policy” should be restricted for the next 48 hours. College authorities across South Mumbai were requested to monitor student gatherings.

On 14 July 2025, the Luminora Home Department forwarded the police report to the Luminora Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology (LMeitY), recommending that the Instagram page “Luminora Unfiltered” be temporarily blocked as “a preventive step”.

On 15 July 2025, Instagram disabled access to the page for all users within India. The notification sent to Aarav simply stated that the page had been “restricted based on a request from authorities”.

Aarav claims he received no prior notice of any proposed action against his page. He also states that the device taken for “verification” had important academic material, which he could not access during examination week.

Following the blocking, student groups from four Luminora colleges organised online campaigns urging the authorities to restore the page. Several hashtags trended locally for a day.

EVENTS LEADING TO THE COURT CASE

Aarav's parents approached the college principal on 16 July 2025, expressing concern about the police involvement. The principal informed them that the college had not filed any complaint and suggested seeking legal advice.

On 17 July 2025, Aarav was informed by Instagram that he could not appeal the takedown because the restriction was “government directed”.

Aarav alleges that the action taken by multiple authorities— Luminora Police, Luminora Home Department, and LMeitY—was “excessive, sudden, and without transparency”. He maintains that the meme was harmless satire and that he never intended to create public disturbance.

He further states that the blocking of the page has affected his reputation, as several of his classmates now assume he engaged in wrongdoing.

After consulting lawyers, Aarav decided to approach the Luminora High Court through a Writ Petition, challenging the actions taken against him and seeking directions related to his social media account and ongoing inquiry.

The petition was filed on 20 July 2025.

The matter has been admitted and is now listed for final hearing.

City of Luminora = City of Mumbai; all laws prevailing in the City of Mumbai will be applicable to City of Luminora

The matter is listed for final disposal on 8th March, 2026.
